Madison, Wis., Sept. 18.—Hard luck is pursuing Jacob M. Thompson, a Reedsburg man. Later it was discovered that Thompson already had a wife and three children at Reedsburg and the same court which performed the second marriage issued a warrant for him on the charge of bigamy. He was located at West Union, Iowa, and Chief of Police Baker went there and arrested him yesterday. Today a requisition was issued from the governor's office for his return to this state.

ROCKEFELLER'S HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE

Lack of Water Prevents Firemen
From Saving Residence of Oil
Magnate at Pecanillo Hills.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Sept. 18.—The residence of John D. Rockefeller at Pecanillo Hills, Westchester county, was burned to the ground. The fire is supposed to have started from crossed electric wires. The house stood on the top of a hill about 600 feet above the level of the Hudson river, overlooking the country for miles in every direction. None of the family was at home and the blaze was discovered by some of the servants working about the place.
The fire department of North Tarrytown and Tarrytown responded to telephone calls, but lack of water prevented the building from being saved. The firemen and servants succeeded in getting out a great portion of the valuable furniture. The estimated loss is $10,000.

The burned building was a substantial structure, though built many years ago. It was occupied by the Rockefellers pending the erection of the manor house, which Mr. Rockefeller has been planning to build near by.

WEST DOES NOT NEED THE MONEY

Secretary Shaw Receives Word from Bankers That They Do Not Need the Loan.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 18.—(Special).—Contradiction of the Wall street reports that the west is in need of money for the movement of crops and that the demand for currency is causing concern to western bankers has been received by Secretary Shaw in a number of letters from bankers in the crop section. One of these from an Ill. bank which had free bonds on hand at the time of the secretary's request to banks to deposit such bonds with the treasurer and accept the government deposits thereon, reads as follows:

Denied Report
"We have your letter of Sept. 13 and in reply will say that we see no particular advantage that will accrue to us by making the change you mention. We have more money than we know what to do with. We notice that it is a common thing for New York people to report that money is scarce in New York on account of the demand to 'move the crops.' This is not correct."

Not Accepted
When asked as to whether he had considered the question of accepting other than government bonds in security for public deposits, Secretary Shaw said that he had received a number of applications for authority to deposit other than government bonds for this purpose, and his uniform answer had been that such propositions could not be considered at all.

Test.

New York, September 18.—(Special).—Yesterday was test day for the fire chiefs attending the annual convention of the International association of Fire Engineers. Exhibitions of newly invented apparatus and appliances for fighting fire were given. An interested spectator was Chief Thomas P. CAN NOT STOP FOREST FIRES

Hope of Putting Them Out Has Been Given Up.

NEW FIRES DAILY

Government Inspectors Say
They Must Burn Themselves Out.

ARE SPREADING FAST

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.)
Denver, Sept. 18.—All hopes of cutting off the immense forest fires that are raging throughout the state today have been abandoned and the fire will now be left to run itself out or spread to other sections of the state if rain does not come and quench the flames that have been raging for two weeks now.

Fires Spreading

Abandon Hopes
The government inspectors sent here from Washington say that there is no means left to save the forests except rain and they can do nothing to abate the growth of the mass of flames that are eating up the timber lands of the whole state.

WHITE HOUSE MEN RETURN TO WORK

Painters' Strike in Washington Ends
by Contractors Conceding
All Asked.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 18.—(Special).—There was a sudden and unexpected termination of the strike of the painters employed at the White house. It was brought about by the contractors withdrawing the four painters, members of the Amalgamated Painters, whose presence caused the strike, their rivalry between rival labor organizations being responsible for the trouble. There was a conference between all parties directly interested. Architect McKim declared he wanted the work to proceed expeditiously and smoothly and hoped nothing would be permitted which would cause the president any inconvenience and delay in returning to the mansion.

Help Friendly Feeling
Mr. Meyer, representing the firm employing the painters objected to, held the same view and out of respect to the president's high office, if for no other reason, he wanted to settle the difficulty at once. He expressed the friendliest feelings for the brotherhood men and said that his firm was ready to employ men satisfactory to the other workmen.

ALDERMEN ON STRIKE AT NEW RICHMOND

City Fathers of Wisconsin Town Declare the Mayor Calls Too Many Special Meetings.

New Richmond, Wis., Sept. 18.—The aldermen of New Richmond are on a strike. The striking city fathers say Dr. Epley, the mayor, is the cause of this condition and that he calls special meetings of the body with a frequency and apparent lack of justification that is not only annoying, but more nearly approaches persecution. The aldermen vehemently object to what they call a Mayor Epley's imperialistic tendencies. The doctor, besides being mayor, is president of the power and pumping works, and this adds a complication to the situation. One of the aldermen says the doctor believes himself a merger of municipal governmental power. A special council meeting was attended by the mayor and one alderman. The latter explained that he happened around because he received no notice of a meeting.

GERMANY WANTS AMERICA'S CROPS

Bad Weather Over There Has Reduced Their Product to Almost Nothing.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 18.—(Special).—Germany will undoubtedly furnish a large market for the abundant crop of American farmers, as abnormally cold weather has retarded the growth of German crops and reduced the yield. This unseasonable weather, which has existed so long and continued until late in August assumes the character of an impending calamity to the cereal harvests of the year. Official advices received at the department of state are to the effect that until early in August this season, although remarkably late, was still hopeful.

Growth Retarded

But as the time came for the wheat and rye to ripen, the cold, wet, cloudy weather kept back the harvest long after the usual date, and when the work of gathering in the grain finally began greatly complicated the task of saving the crops. In many fields the rye and wheat had been cut and laid in swaths or put up in shocks, exposed to rain and storm, until the grain has been seriously damaged by sprouting.

Below Standard
The first samples of the new crop of rye are almost without exception damp, more or less unripe, and even when artificially dried of inferior grade. While the German grain crop this year will be nearly up to the average in quantity, its quality has been seriously damaged and large quantities of rye which would have been used as breadstuff will now be distilled or used for feeding animals.

DEADLY BOMB THROWN BY LONE BANK ROBBER

Unknown Man Enters Skagway Institution and Is Torn to Pieces
by His Own Missile.

Skagway, Alaska, Sept. 18.—An unknown man entered the Canadian Bank of Commerce with a bomb in one hand and a revolver in the other, demanded $20,000, and, when the frightened employees leaped out the window, he threw the bomb after them. The explosion wrecked the bank, killed the robbed, injured five persons, and scattered $2,000 worth of gold dust through the air.

The robber entered the bank at 3 o'clock. Cashier Pooley and Teller Wallace were the only employees in the bank. Wallace dived behind the counter and ran quickly to the back of the room, intending to get his revolver, calling for Pooley to do the same.

"No you don't!" yelled the man and threw the bomb.

The clerks had just leaped out the window when the bomb exploded. The robber's head was smashed and one arm was torn off. Four persons living above the bank were blown into the air and injured. J. G. Price, formerly prosecuting attorney, who was entering the bank, was hurt but not seriously. The dynamite died without regaining consciousness. The loss to the banks is nearly $25,000.

A public works deposit made by the Chicago telephone company as security for repairs was credited on the city books as $250. The balance has not been found, although a special appropriation has been made to restore it.

BUYERS OF LEAF BEGIN TO RIDE

THIS YEAR'S CROP IS CHANGING HANDS RAPIDLY.

HOLD OUT FOR HIGH PRICES

Tobacco Crop Is Unusually Good, and Growers Are Not Overly Anxious to Sell.

The buying of the 1902 crop of tobacco, is being carried on to a considerable extent, in all sections of the growing districts. Vernon county was the first place attacked by the buyers and up to the present time it is estimated, that about 1,000 acres have been contracted for. There has not been the great rush this year, when the buying opened that there has been in former years. One reason for this is that the farmers are holding the crop at a higher figure than the buyers are willing to pay. Conservative buyers figure that the crop should be bought for from seven to eight cents per pound, and the farmers are holding it at from ten to eleven cents.

During the last week the American Cigar Co. has started out its force of buyers in Dane county and are making a great many contracts. Over one thousand acres have already been contracted for and many more will be before the end of the week. The majority of the contracts placed so far in this section are said to be around 8 cents, for blonder and wrapper grades. The fact that so much tobacco is changing hands is an indication that the growers are inclined to accept a reasonable figure for the crop.

Quite a number of Janesville buyers are riding the country, picking up the crops that can be bought for a reasonable figure. They claim there is plenty of tobacco and that the majority of the crop will be purchased early, if it can be obtained at a fair price. The growers are loth to let go of the crop at a less figure than they received last year, and it is claimed that this is a much better crop.

The Wisconsin Tobacco Reporter states: That the territory embraced in the Vernon county section, Crawford and Vernon counties, is producing about 8,000 acres of tobacco this season, which under the present prospects is due to yield about 35,000 cases of cured leaf. The amount sold to date therefore has but barely made a commencement in the crop. The valley tobacco which in other years has been largely sought after is reported to be scarcely up to standard this year, due to the heavy floods of a wet season which washed away a good many fields. The crop generally throughout this section is later than in the lower districts and has no advantage of it in size of leaf. A comparison of the quality of the leaf can be determined later after the tobacco is more thoroughly cured.

A dispatch to the Milwaukee Sentinel from Menomonee, Wis., dated September 15, states that the damage to the tobacco crop of Dunn county by frost is estimated at $50,000. About one-half of the crop had been gathered.

The Censor, Viroqua, states that the tobacco harvest is now at its height. Farmers are fearful for rough weather and frost. In fact it has gone very close to the frost line for two or three nights the past week. Help commands any price, from $1.50 to $2.25 per day with farmers. Sufficient assistance is impossible in some localities. Crop statistics for the county, just completed, give the present acreage at 5,679, against 5,213 last season. The crop is so heavy that harvesting is slow, with a demand for much more shed room than has been provided. Buying has been quite brisk with the home dealers and with some outsiders. The United Cigar company, of New York, with Mr. Brill as representative, has picked up a large acreage. The ruling prices are 7 to 11 to 12 cents. It will require a month of ordinary weather to shed the tobacco of Vernon county.

The demand for cured leaf is increasing somewhat and quite a number of sales of old goods have been made during the past week.

The general New York leaf market continues quite active, considering that the rush of out-of-town buyers has closed. While some of the Western jobbers are loaded pretty well, others bought but sparingly, and a few left without buying anything, trusting to luck, that on a visit later on they might get better suited. In which calculation it is safe to predict that they will be sadly disappointed. For not only will they have to take then inferior goods, but they will have to pay the prices for them the better and cleaner goods demanded last month. For the conditions of the market are such that the stock is not sufficient to supply the demand and last year's crops will not improve with age. The more farsighted buyers continue therefore to take what they can get and to drive the best bargain for it. Domestic wrapper leaf and binders are the scarcest articles. For this year's Wisconsin packers are paying from 10 cents to 12 cents in the bundle, which means 15 cents to 16 cents for the packer before he gets it in marketable condition. These goods can certainly not sell next year at this time for less than 15 cents; consequently 1900 Wisconsin at 18 cents or 20 cents now must be reckoned to be cheap. These facts are seemingly appreciated by the second troop of out-of-town buyers who have made their appearance this week, for they are pitching in to see what they can lay their hands on. Over two thousand cases were disposed of of all kinds and varieties and in not altogether big lots of any kind.

The Sumatra market is holding its own very well. The absence of any complaints or growls is the best proof that the importers are disposing of their stock in a satisfactory manner.

The Havana market fell off somewhat this week, but that is no sign that it is weakening. The reports from our Havana correspondent show the riskiest kind of a tobacco market in the city of Havana and presage a scarcity of factory wages, and from what is known of the new Remedios the holding of last year's crop are bound to appreciate greatly in value. No apprehension need therefore be felt about the stock on hand.

Ohio
The harvesting of the earlier planted tobacco in this vicinity is now about completed and the gathering of the later crop will probably commence next week. The later planted leaf has been suffering from drought and in consequence is a trifle backward, but recent showers have improved the condition considerably and the plants are expected to ripen rapidly from now on. Up to the present there has been little or no buying, the reports of transactions having proved fictitious upon investigation. These reports, which have been circulated vigorously, were to the effect that high prices were being paid by eager buyers, and the effect has been to excite the farmers into the belief that their crops are regular gold mines. Who is responsible for these rumors cannot be learned, but it is not impossible that some wily growers were the authors with an idea of bulging the market.

Connecticut Valley
All energies are now being devoted to the harvesting of the new crop of tobacco, the fear of hail and perhaps frost, serving as a decided stimulant to activity among the farmers. There has been very little if any buying in the field, the disagreements last year having made both buyers and sellers more cautious. Farmers this year are inclined to wait until the character and quality of the leaf can be learned and a market value established, and consequently in most cases decline to fix a price on their holdings. There are plenty of buyers, but as a rule they are not overzealous about immediate purchases, and those who are anxious to begin business are hampered by the indisposition of the farmers to sell. It has been shrewdly suggested that this indisposition will continue until the size and the quality of the crop can be approximated, both in this section and in Wisconsin.

New York
The prospects for a fine and plentiful tobacco crop in this section are not of the brightest. The climatic conditions cold and wet weather in many sections has retarded the growth considerably, and the reports of frost in adjacent localities have induced some growers to begin cutting prematurely. This action has also been impelled by the fear of damage from wind and hail, and it is feared that much unripe tobacco has been housed by those who can hardly expect but still hope that no damage will ensue. Buyers are here in plenty, but so far they have confined their operations to inspecting the fields and warning farmers not to be too hasty in harvesting their crops. It must not be assumed that there is no good tobacco here or that all farmers are rushing green leaf into their barns, but there are so many poor crops and so much harvesting of un-matured tobacco that they naturally dominate the situation.

Pennsylvania
The fall leaf trade in Pennsylvania is opening up very satisfactorily. And this condition is the case not alone with this line of trade, but there is considerable more activity among the manufacturers and retailers. Present conditions are considerably in advance of what they usually are at this time. Money seems to be plenty, fear seems to have subsided, selling seems less hard, collections are better, and the dealers generally look for one of the biggest fall trades they have had in a number of years. The new tobacco that are arriving are being snapped up, and there is considerable activity in Havana and Sumatra.

BELOIT TO HAVE MODEL BUILDING

Will Be a Most Complete Office Structure Built on Steel Caissons.

Beloit will have its first up-to-date office building in a short time if current rumors are to be taken as authoritative. Mrs. Ella D. Adams, who owns the Yale bakery building just west of the Bridge street bridge, is, according to report, about to erect a four-story structure over the river or to the east of the Yale building.

Failed to Prevent
A short time ago the council passed what was considered a prohibitive ordinance which would prevent the erection of any further buildings over the river. According to the story, Mrs. Adams will circumvent the ordinance by using steel caissons for a foundation instead of piles.

BELOIT CLAM BAKE POORLY ATTENDED

Few Janesville People Went to the Annual Affair at Rockton Today.

Janesville people did not turn out in as large numbers today as was expected by Manager Kline of the Beloit clam bake. It is difficult to understand, however how a great number could have been expected from the Bower City when so little advertising was done in this city.

Bride's Parents, Mr. and Mrs.
John W. Waggoner.

Last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Waggoner, 122 Pearl street, the marriage of their eldest daughter, Miss Hattie Louise Waggoner to Dr. Clarence A. Atwood, of Durand, Ill., was celebrated. The ceremony was witnessed by a company of about thirty relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties, the majority of the guests being from out of the city.

The parlors of the home were beautifully decorated with cut flowers, great bowls of deep red roses and asters being used in profusion. Over the double window, in front of which the bridal party stood, was an artistic canopy of green foliage, asters and sweet peas, a great bunch of asters hanging pendant from the center.

Promptly at eight o'clock the couple, unattended, entered the parlor of the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Florence Walker, of Durand, Ill. They were preceded by the Rev. Richard M. Vaughan of the Baptist church, who performed the brief and impressive ceremony.

Bride's Dress
The bride was gown most becomingly in blue tulle and carried a bouquet of white roses. She is a charming young woman who had moved here with her parents from Durand, but recently. The groom is an enterprising young dentist and both he and his bride are very popular in Durand.

Wedding Supper
The ceremony was followed by an appetizing wedding supper served at small tables. Mr. and Mrs. Atwood left last evening for Madison and they will visit several cities in the state before going to Durand, where they will be at home to their friends after October 15th. To their home they will take many handsome and costly presents, souvenirs of their wedding day and tokens of the esteem of many friends.

Among the wedding guests from out of the city were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Atwood, parents of the groom, and their daughters, Misses Zella and Viola Atwood of Peconic, Ill.; Mrs. C. E. Clark, Misses Bessie Clark, Florence Walker and Myrtle Conway and Guy Walker of Durand, Ill.; Mrs. W. C. Schneider and son Harold of Chicago; Miss Mildred Hill and Claude Colby of Rockford, Ill.; and Mr. and Mrs. George Robb, of Aton.

Fisher-Sadler
Frank Sadler and Miss Lucy Fisher were united in marriage at high noon yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laban Fisher, 56 Milton avenue. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Richard M. Vaughan, pastor of the Baptist church. The house was tastefully decorated with ferns, woodbine, asters and amilax. The guests were the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. Many beautiful presents testified to the high esteem in which they are held. The bride has been connected with the Parker Pen Co. and by virtue of her personal qualities has many friends throughout the city. After a wedding trip they will return and will make their home at 2 Walker street.

Axon-Kaschin
Henry Cornelius Kaschin and Clara Louise Axon were married last night at 8 o'clock at the home of the Misses Axon on South Main street, by the Rev. J. H. Tippet. An elaborate supper was served to the relatives and friends present.

Of the "East Lynne" Co., is the Son of a Western Railroad President. J. Frazer Crosby of the "East Lynne" company and a Gazette reporter were engaged in a social chat this morning, when they were accosted in regard to "East Lynne" which will be given at the Myers Opera House tonight.

Mr. Crosby is a genial fellow and is the son of J. F. Crosby, president of the El Paso Northwestern railroad. "You can impress upon the minds of the ladies," said Mr. Crosby, "that they can get some good ideas on latest styles in hats and gowns from those worn tonight by ladies of the company."

Inez Forman, who appears in the character of Lady Isabel, is an actress of distinction. She is known in all the metropolitan cities. She is the wife of the general manager of the El Paso & Northwestern railroad. She carries her audience with her from the moment she first bounds into "East Lynne" a lovely blooming bride.

The drama appeals, however, to others besides the ultra sentimental, as is attested by the numerous long runs the piece has had in the twenty-five years or more of service seen. If ever a play plays on the chords of the human hearts a sad, yet sweet refrain, to grow poetical, East Lynne is that same.

The revival is said to be sumptuous in the extreme, the accessories being all new and modern. Mr. Crosby, as Archibald Carlisle, and Miss Forman, as Lady Isabel, had suitable support in Charles Terris, as Sir Francis Levison, Alice Brooklyne, as Barbara, and other capable people in minor roles.

ROCKFORD STREET FAIR A FAILURE

Merchants Who Backed It Are Compelled To Pay Up $1,000 of Deficit.

Over one thousand dollars is the amount for which the promoters of the Rockford carnival will have to go down in their pockets. During the entire week ending last Saturday night, less than 20,000 paid admittance to the show. Day by day the press agent had juggled the figures in the hope of keeping up interest, but when the six days were over and the Bostwick-Lerari tractions gone the truth leaked out.

To Pay Bills
Poor weather has been held culpable for the disappointing attendance rather than failure to live up to the promises made concerning the attractions. The Merchants' Carnival association will make up the deficit immediately, but they have been troubled by the failure of some of those who made pledges to pay up.

THE HARVEY SCANDAL

The Buckstaff and Stout exposure of the methods employed to defeat Superintendent Harvey, adds to the strife and confusion which has long prevailed in the ranks of the republican party, and is a humiliation that will be felt very keenly by every loyal republican.

If there is any office in the state that should be taken out of politics, it is the office of state superintendent and if Mr. Harvey had been permitted to retain this office this much needed reform would have been accomplished at the next session of the legislature. He reluctantly consented to abandon normal work and serve the state, because he believed that the public school system could be improved and every energy was intelligently bent in that direction. His plans reached on into the future and prejudice against old established customs was gradually yielding to convincing arguments that he advanced.

Mr. Harvey was an ideal official. The teachers of the state were in sympathy with him, and held him in high regard. To remove such a man from office, to gratify spite, is a loss to the state and an insult to the party.

The methods employed are not defensible, and any amount of whitewash will not fail to cover up the iniquity.

It is fortunate for the party that republicanism is not responsible for LaFolletteism, any more than democracy is responsible for Bryanism. The republican party believes in honor and common honesty. The feeling of disgust and disappointment expressed by Buckstaff, Stout and Hoard, represent republican sentiment, and is endorsed by many men who have heretofore been identified as the governor's admirers.

What effect the expose will have on the success of the ticket, time will determine. Party success is always desirable, but the success of a faction that does not represent the party, is a question that many thoughtful men are seriously considering.

One man power was never very popular in this country, and it is a new experience for Wisconsin. It is possible, under certain conditions, as was the case with Bryan, for the individual to overshadow the party, but when this happens, it is always unfortunate for the welfare of the party. Bryanism demoralized the democratic party beyond recognition. LaFolletteism has made heavy inroads in the ranks of the republican party, and the end is not yet. The reaction from the Buckstaff-Stout exposure is already apparent. Unless the charmed life of the governor serves him as a coat of mail, he will suffer from the effects.

EVIDENCES OF PROSPERITY.

The phenomenal activity of the whole country is illustrated by some figures, just prepared by the Treasury Bureau of Statistics, showing the commerce on the Great Lakes during the month of July and the seven months ending with July.

The statistical measurement of trade on the Great Lakes has been greatly developed by the Bureau of Statistics within the past few years. Under the system of reporting cargo by masters of vessels, which it established in 1900, an average of from 7,000 to 8,000 supplementary manifests is received at the Bureau each month during the season. These manifests are immediately tabulated in such a manner as to show the amount of work done by each lake port throughout the month and year. July is the latest month for which figures have been published in the Summary of Internal Commerce, 144 receiving ports and 217 shipping ports being represented.

The end of July usually marks the turning point in the open season of lake navigation. This year, however, an earlier opening brought out a much heavier tonnage movement than last season. The total freight receipts for the first seven months of this year were 25,718,826 net tons, as against 15,591,257 net tons to the corresponding date of last year. This increase is at the rate of 30.6 per cent. over the received tonnage of last season. Shipments thus far this season have amounted to 26,653,334 net tons, those of last season being 19,653 net tons. These most conspicuous gains have been made in the shipment of ore and minerals not including coal, this season's total amounting to 13,377,912 gross tons, against only 9,083,982 gross tons in 1901—a gain of 47.3 per cent. Coal shipments increased from 8,670,571 tons last season to 4,652,323 net tons this season. Slightly less than half of the total freight tonnage on the lakes consists of iron ore.

WHO NOMINATED LAFOLLETTE?

At the time the republican caucuses were held to elect delegates to the state convention, the "fair minded" democrats were so active, that it was generally predicted that there wouldn't be enough left to care for democratic primaries later in the season.

The prediction was well-founded, and in many parts of the state democratic caucuses went by default because many members of the party had already voted, and they had a wholesome regard for the law which prohibits taking part in the caucus proceedings of two parties.

In the city of Beloit no attention was given to the democratic caucuses. Some of the wards in Janesville were not represented and at Edgerton one saloon man declined to go but said he had not only voted for LaFollette delegates himself, but had persuaded twenty of his democratic friends to do the same.

Deprived of this kind of support the nomination of LaFollette would never have been secured, and the statement that he is not the choice of the republican party is true.

It remains to be seen, whether this class of democratic support will stay by him in November. If so, his election is not a matter of doubt.

An anti-LaFollette club of 75 members has been organized in Evansville and a representative was in Janesville recently for a supply of Rose buttons. Straws indicate the direction of the wind.

A country that can afford to lose $100,000,000 on a coal strike, without serious results to general business, is well established, and a long ways from bankruptcy.

With no coal to sell the price might as well be $20 per ton as $6.00. It is safe to say that but few contracts will be made until the market settles.

The new City Hall is an ornament to the city, and will serve as a monument of extravagance to the tax payers for some years to come.

You can't tell by the looks of a frog how far he can jump, any more than you can tell how far $2,000 will go in a campaign.

The goddess of reform is destitute of plumage, and in the bright light of exposure appears to be largely gowned in pin feathers and spurs.

The supreme indifference manifested by the men who defeated Harvey, is a revelation to many republicans.

A claw hammer coat and an eight dollar salary are frequently inseparable.

Honesty means more than a profession.

Money buys both books and men.

PRESS COMMENT.

La Crosse Republican and Leader: The nomination of Rose for governor was the biggest kind of a mistake.

Milwaukee Journal: What with politics and poachers the life of game warden is not just at present a steady whirl of pleasure.

Madison Democrat: Eighty thousand licenses for hunters have been taken out in Wisconsin. The death list will exceed that of the Spanish war.

Appleton Post, Stalwart Rep.: The nomination of Dave Rose for the governorship by the democratic convention will be worth at least 50,000 votes to Gov. LaFollette.

Madison Journal: Mr. Louis Lange the Fond du Lac assemblyman, has at last got the prize he has long coveted, at least he is in a position to reach for it—the nomination for secretary of state.

Superior Leader: Candidate Rose threatens to make something over 300 speeches between now and election day. The people of this state may look for a hot wave before the end of the month.

Milwaukee Daily News, Dem.: Mr. Rose will give the voters something to think about besides argument. His vote-getting qualities have been amply demonstrated in the Milwaukee municipal campaigns.

Appleton Post: Whatever dissatisfaction there has been among republicans towards Governor LaFollette will now, as it should, entirely disappear, considering the kind of man his opponent is—but there are others.

Milwaukee Sentinel, Stalwart Rep.: The Sentinel believes that the public records of all candidates for office are legitimate campaign material. It looks upon petty personalities, microscopic analysis of private character which can have no bearing upon the official conduct of the victims, as having no place in a political campaign.

La Crosse Republican and Leader: The American farmer is certainly getting his share of the prosperity which is making this country notable throughout the world.

Racine Journal: The esteemed State Journal turns aside from heavy politics to remark, "We care not who writes the songs of the nation provided the furnace in our flat can be run with wood." The Journal is positively getting frisky.

Free Press: When the people turn out to see Mayor Rose's whirlwind campaign and battle royal, they will all know in advance that it is a sham and that what the mayor says is mere buncombe. The mayor has already made his own reputation.

Milwaukee News: It is just barely possible that Governor LaFollette has gone east to meet Senator John C. Spooner and Henry C. Payne to see about those "mutualization" features and to initiate them into the inner circle of "reform," where "Uncle Ike" equalization.

Evening Wisconsin: Those who are conjuring doubt as to the present whereabouts of Governor LaFollette will have no room whatever for doubt as to his whereabouts officially for a period of two years following January next, when they see the election returns in November.

Chippewa Herald: The attitude of the Milwaukee Journal has taken toward the candidacy of Mayor Rose for the gubernatorial nomination makes many wonder just what course that paper will pursue through the campaign. It has supplied much good literature for republican campaigners.

Milwaukee Free Press, LaFollette Rep.: David S. Rose is certainly a tawdry candidate; a showy man, who will be called "hairsome" by the servant girl class as he prances up and down the state this fall in the prosecution of the hot campaign he promises to make.

Chicago Chronicle: We gather from the answer of the Northern Securities company in the Minnesota courts that nothing save a perhaps mistaken feeling of mercy restrains that organization from sending Governor Van Zant to cool his heels in jail along with Peter Power.

Fond du Lac Reporter: A man who has evidently been there says that things are not always what they seem and that this is the time of year when people return from their summer vacations and take a rest of two or three days, or call in the doctor, before they are able to resume work again.

La Crosse Chronicle, LaFollette Rep.: Any man acquainted with the character of David S. Rose, what he stands for, and what he has stood for, must be agnostic at the spectacle of such a man being made even a candidate for the high and honorable office of governor of the state of Wisconsin.

Neenah Times: The Oshkosh Times says that "John Wattawa may have made mistakes in the practice of his profession, he may have charged exorbitant fees in some instances," but insists that he should not be pounced upon as he was after being nominated. The Oshkosh Times man is safe. He will never, never die for principle.

Washington Post: After all, what pleasure is there in running these high power automobiles at railroad speed? The occupants have to bundle themselves up to wear goggles and all sorts of defenses against dust and gravel. They cannot possibly enjoy the scenery or the motion. The only idea is to go faster than some one else. It seems a poor and barren form of happiness. It cannot be enjoyed under normal conditions.

LOCAL DEALERS EXPRESS FEAR

Many Will Suffer This Winter Unless Something Else Turns Up Soon.

"I tell you people are just beginning to find out what they are up against," said a local coal dealer today when questioned regarding the condition of the coal market. "It is not simply that there is a shortage of anthracite coal, but the soft coal is beginning to give out too. It is true that hard coal was raised yesterday morning to $12.00 but you must remember that soft coal took a jump at the same time to $6.50. It is going to be a fierce proposition and Janesville is just beginning to get wise."

Soft Coal Short
At nearly every local coal yard there is reported a falling off of the quantity of soft coal on hand. The opinion is generally expressed that those who are expected to rely on the bituminous product for winter consumption will find it wise to purchase soon or go without. Fabulous quantities of soft coal have been consumed in the past few months and the mines are beginning to feel the demand upon them.

Nut Not Gone
Several dealers stated that their supply of nut coal is still holding out strongly although their other grades are nearly gone. "In every other line except nut we are practically cleaned out and it is a great temptation to ship what nut coal we have to Chicago."

Try Substitutes
It is not commonly believed that substitutes will prove satisfactory. Gas and oil have been used with varying degrees of success. Several persons have found the West Virginia smokeless an excellent alternative for the other lines. Wood is of course eminently satisfactory. It can be secured.

Wood Also Scarce
But a wood famine is the latest development. Two firms reported that the men with whom they had contracted for their winter supplies of wood had written saying that they could not fill the orders. If it is true that there is difficulty in securing wood the seriousness of the situation will be intensified.

Other Cities Cheaper
It has been generally stated that at both Milton and Clinton coal is cheaper than here and that farmers in this locality will haul their winter's supply from one of those places. However that may be, farmers living within one mile of Beloit have come to Janesville and hauled coal the eleven miles to their homes.

ARMY LIFE HAS ITS FASCINATIONS

Two Janesville Boys Who Have Seen Service Before, Go to Chicago to Enlist.

Service in the United States army has a fascination for some young men even after they have served one or two terms of service in Cuba and the Philippines. There is something about the life that is hard to shake off and after a short lay-off, unless the discharged soldier gets active employment he is apt to drift back into the harness again.

A Case At Home
Such is the case with two Janesville boys, F. C. Duller and F. C. Stewart. Both these young men have seen active service in Cuba and the Philippines and were discharged last spring. Even though Duller has been married since his discharge from the army, the temptation to enlist again was too strong and last night they left for Chicago where they will enlist for a three year term of service in the Philippines.

Like The Army
Both of these boys know what army life is like and are satisfied that they are better off in the service than they are out of it.

Voss-Avery.
Miss Emma Voss of Beloit and Burr Avery of the same city were married last evening at the bride's home in Beloit. Mr. Avery is employed by the Fairbanks, Morse company and after a short wedding trip the couple will make their home in the Line City.

Carpenter-Potter
Miss Alma Carpenter and Mr. Milton Potter were married in Beloit last night at the home of their bride's parents. Mr. Potter is employed in Beloit and Miss Carpenter until recently has been employed by the Wisconsin Telephone Co. in Beloit.

Gave Pretty Luncheon.
Mrs. M. G. Jeffris was the hostess at a delightful one o'clock luncheon given at her home, 274 South Main street, yesterday afternoon. The luncheon was in honor of Miss Ruth Culver, whose marriage to Frank Sanner has been announced, and the guests were a number of the young lady friends of the prospective bride. The delicious course luncheon was faultlessly served, and the afternoon will be pleasantly remembered by those who shared its pleasures.

Edwin Hoffman
The funeral of little Edwin Hoffman was held from the home, 309 Western avenue, at two o'clock this afternoon. The Rev. C. J. Koerner was the officiating clergyman and the remains were taken to Oak Hill cemetery for interment.

Friends of Mr. Martin G. Curtis are much disturbed over his absence from the city. On Monday last he went for a short automobile ride with Mr. Montgomery, representing the locomobile company, saying that he would return at seven in the evening. Since then nothing has been heard of either Mr. Montgomery or himself. His friends at the Myers House are talking of asking aid in locating him and fear that he has perhaps met with an accident that has delayed him.

A large company of her lady friends were charmingly entertained at her home, 51 St. Lawrence place, and Mrs. Fethers sustained her reputation as a gracious hostess. The home was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and dainty refreshments were served.

Hinders Excursions: The threatening weather this morning kept a great many Janesville visitors home from Elkhorn. The St. Paul road carried out about eighty from here on the special. They expect to have a large crowd on Friday as that is Janesville day at the fair and the Imperial band will accompany the visitors.

NO COAL, WHY NOT USE DEAD WOOD?

SCARCITY OF FUEL MIGHT BE THUS ALLEVIATED.

FURNACES COULD BE FIXED

Plenty of Wood Near Janesville That Could Easily Be Secured at Low Prices.

Price is not the most important feature of the present stringency of the coal market that confronts the Janesville householders. Far more important is the fact that there is practically no coal to buy at any price. Prices may be twenty-five dollars in Chicago and twelve dollars a ton on the car in the Janesville yards, but the fact remains that even at these almost prohibitory prices there is no supply to meet the demand.

Remedy Suggested
Honorable Hamilton Richardson has suggested a remedy for this evil that should meet with the heartiest accord from the residents of Janesville who are confronted with the coal problem. His plan is one that is not only feasible but is also of great benefit to the surrounding country. In conversation on the subject he said: "In place of coal during the coming winter let us burn wood. By wood I mean those thousands of cords of dead timber that litter up the small groves that are in the adjacent country and are a burden to the farmer in clearing his land."

Good Fuel
This dead timber is as good fuel as coal and could give employment to many men who otherwise would be idle during the coming winter. Take this dead timber and burn it in the furnaces and you will find that it will give good heat and not only will save the coal bills but will also clear off the dead timber from the farm lands and give the county more ground to devote to crops next year. Greater production at the present high market means more money in the community and more money means greater prosperity.

Plan A Good One
The plan of burning wood in the place of coal is a good one. The present coal grates in furnaces and stoves can easily be remedied by the expenditure of a few cents. In the purchase of a sheet of iron that will keep the wood ashes from sifting through the grating and can easily be placed in the heating apparatus and taken out at will. Any hardware store can fit out a stove with plates of this kind and then wood can be burned as easily as coal.

Plenty Of Wood
The supply of wood about the city is also almost inexhaustible. Two years ago many trees died from the drought and are still standing or have fallen down and are rotting away. This dead wood could be utilized very easily and cut up and hauled into the city by the teams that during the winter, when the street work is over, otherwise would be idle. Farmers could thus clear off their lands and benefit themselves as well as furnish comfort to the residents of Janesville. Old wood would burn as well in the furnaces as green wood and would give as much heat.

Boon to Moderate Living
Such a plan as this would be a boon to families living on a moderate income. They could purchase a wood stove, of sheet iron similar to those used in the south, for a few dollars and, until this present stringency in the coal market is over, could be in perfect comfort at a moderate sum.

SUCCESSFUL REMNANT SALE

Held At The Store of J. M. Bostwick & Sons Today

Proper newspaper advertising was fully demonstrated today at the well known dry goods store of J. M. Bostwick & Sons. The Big Store advertised 4,000 remnants for sale the bargain counters to be open to the public this morning at eight o'clock. As early as 7:30 o'clock anxious buyers were on hand and by 9 o'clock fully 200 patrons were at the store eagerly seeking the many bargains offered. This afternoon the spacious aisles were filled with women many being in attendance from all sections of the county. It takes a large crowd to fill the Big Store but this fact was fully demonstrated today at what proved to be the most successful dress goods remnant sale ever held under the auspices of J. M. Bostwick & Sons.

OFFICIALS GET READY TO MOVE

CITY HALL IS NEARLY READY FOR OCCUPANCY.

FINAL TOUCHES BEING GIVEN

Building Is Being Cleaned, Floors Re-oiled, and Several Important Changes Made.

The city hall is now undergoing a thorough cleaning preparatory to its occupation by the city officers. Most of the hard wood floors will have to be re-oiled and refinished on account of numerous spots on them made by the decorators. The paint spots on the floors have to be removed with a scraper and hot water which takes up the oil finish and leaves them in bad shape.

New Filing Cases

The steel filing cases for the city clerk's office have arrived and will be set up right away. The filing case in the old office will be taken to the new building and fitted in with the new.

Changes For Vault

The vault in the city treasurer's office will have to be changed considerably. A window guarded with iron bars opens into the vault from the outside. This window will be covered with iron bars and then bricked up to make it burglar proof. The new city clerk's vault is the same way, but as this vault was only intended to be fire proof the window will be left as it is, but the city treasurer's vault will be made as nearly burglar proof as possible.

Light Fixtures

The lighting fixtures for the building have arrived and will be put up at once so that the building may be lighted at council meeting next Tuesday night.

Move October First

Municipal Judge Fifield has started sorting the papers of his court so that he can get into his new quarters by the first of October. The other city officers are preparing to move in about the same time.

Building Walks

G. D. Connor has a large force of men at work and has the excavations for the cement sidewalk and curbing practically completed, and will have the walks finished by the time that the building is ready for occupancy.

The cells from the city lock-up will be moved into the new building some time next week. This work is delayed somewhat for the reason that the rivets holding the cages together will have to be cut and a supply of new rivets had to be ordered. The cages in the women's department of the lock-up are all ready to set up in the new building as soon as the rivets arrive.

THE POSSIBILITY.

The experience of a Janesville man in New York may serve as a warning to other of his brethren who may journey Gothamward. My friend was on his vacation and had the one fixed purpose of showing the New Yorkers that even if he did smell of the stock yards, he was wise. In Janesville he had left a probability behind him in the shape of a sweet maiden, in New York he knew of a possibility in the person of a school friend of his sister who he met the summer before.

Puzzled as to the proper way to announce his arrival to the Possibility he wandered along Broadway undecided. Passing Thorley's flower store, in the Hoffman House, he was struck with the happy thought of flowers. The window was filled with violet and he had heard the Possibility say that violets were her favorite flowers.
Entering the shop with a city air, he asked the polite attendant for a bunch of the sweet scented flowers.
But one was too small to suit his fastidious mind and he called for another. Too small yet and it was not until a fourth had been added was he pleased. Then while the attendant wrapped the flowers in a purple tissue box tied with purple string, he felt in his pockets for the two dollars he thought about right for the payment.

The attendant was looking at him and to show his knowledge of city ways he handed her a crisp ten dollar bill. The store filled up and for some five minutes he was interested in watching the ever changing crowd passing and repassing the front of the store. Turning finally to see where his change was, he saw the clerk, that had served him, doing up another package and approaching, asked him for his change. The surprised look on the clerk's face was replaced a moment later by one of amusement as he said in a loud voice: "There is no change the four bunches cost $2.50 a piece."

My friend is back from New York now. He cut his visit short and the Possibility instead of the Possibility now receives violets only they do not cost ten dollars a bunch.

WERE WAY BEHIND.

It was in one of those remote mountain districts of Colorado where schools and almost every other by-path of modern advancement are unknown, and in a section where the inhabitants seldom see human faces besides those of their own family.
Mrs. Terrance and her husband had just struggled through a long and severe winter. From late in October to the last week in March heavy snow storms had penned them in and not a soul had they seen. They knew nothing of the world outside.
On the first of April along came a man from the circulating department of an up-to-date mountain journal who wanted to get a few subscribers in that district. Now Mrs. Ter-rance had a strain of intellect, although she never attended school, so when the proposition of getting a semi-weekly sheet the year around for two dollars—eight pages, too, of first class paper that could be cut in to artistic shapes and used for the decoration of her cupboard shelves—the bargain was almost sealed. But David—Mr. Terrance—came in just then and as soon as he discovered how near he had been to losing $2 in hard earned cash he promptly declared that no paper should come into that house as long as he was master of it.

Mrs. Terrance stormed, begged, and then pleaded, but David remained firm and dismissed the subject.
His wife, and the man from the circulating department with one sweep of his hand, a stamp of his foot, and an emphatic "No." Mrs. Ter-rance muttered something about "that scoundrel David would never let his woman learn nothing," and went on with her work.

The next morning while the two were seated near the kitchen stove, Mrs. Terrance in response to a rap, opened the door and ushered in the theological student who was in the business of selling Bibles, maps of the Holy Land, etc. His manner was extremely solemn and impressive.

As soon as Mr. Terrance saw the man and heard him state his business he burst out:

"B'gosh, if that's nother one of them dubs tryin' ter fleece yer."

The Bible agent was shocked. The vulgarity of speech literally took him off his feet, for he had not expected such a reception. He looked first at Mrs. Terrance and then towards David, who was scowling over the tops of his glasses, then responded in words so awe inspiring that the sound of his voice would have frightened a ghost.

"Don't you know," he said, "that Christ died to save sinners?"
"There, Dave, see what you've did," broke in Mrs. Terrance before another word could be spoken. "I jest kalculated yesterday we'd never know nothin' what was goin' on in this kentry if we didn't hitch to that thar fellow's paper."

OHIO'S REPLICA OF MONT PELEE.

Copperas Mountain Throws Off Smoke and Sulphurous Gases.

Bainbridge, Ohio, Sept. 18.—People living in the Paint Creek Valley are greatly alarmed over the appearance of smoke and sulphurous gases from Copperas Mountain, which can be seen from this place. Ever since the first eruption of Mont Pelee smoke has issued from the mountain at intervals, but only recently have the smoke and the gas become especially noticeable.

Wyoming Forest Fires.
Cheyenne, Wyo., Sept. 18.—A telephone message from Grand Encampment says the forest fire situation is growing more alarming along the Wyoming-Colorado line. The residents of Pearl, Colo., and Encampment fear that unless the fires are soon checked the towns may be wiped out.

Lewis River Victims Buried.
Kalama, Wash., Sept. 18.—Fifteen of the victims of the Lewis river fire have been interred at Murray's, twenty-seven miles above Woodland. The fire has practically died out and relief parties are taking in food and clothing with pack horses.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

CITY IMPROVEMENT NOTICE

Published by the authority of the Common Council of the City of Janesville, August 21st, 1902.

"To Whom It May Concern: Notice is hereby given that a contract has been let for improving South Jackson street from the southerly side of Pleasant street to the southerly side of Rock street, in the Fourth ward, by grading, macadamizing and the laying of gutters and curbing, and that the expense of said improvement chargeable to the real estate has been determined as to each parcel of said real estate, and a statement of the same is on file with the city clerk.

It is proposed to issue bonds chargeable only to the real estate to pay the special assessment, and such bonds will be issued covering all of said assessments, except in cases where the owners of the property file with the city clerk, within thirty days after the date thereof, a written notice that they object to pay the special assessment on a part thereof on their property, describing the same, on presentation of the certificates.

A. E. BADGER,
City Clerk.

Each bidder must accompany his bid with a contract and bond, with not less than two sureties, who shall be free holders of the state of Wisconsin, and shall justify as to their responsibility and by their several affidavits show that they are worth in the aggregate at least the amount of the entire contract price on property not by law exempt from execution. Surety companies approved by the Street Assessment Committee will be accepted in lieu of personal sureties.

Said contract and bond, with sureties, must be completely executed on the part of the contractor, with the exception of the signature on the part of the city.

THIS IS A POSITIVE REQUIREMENT. CONTRACTS NOT SO COMPLETED WILL BE REJECTED.

Bids failing to comply with the above requirements will not be considered.

No bid will be considered that does not state the bidder's name, the name of the street, and the location of the work on said street, as called for in the specifications, profiles and plans.

Bidders must submit proposals to do the work as called for in the specifications, profiles, plans and details for each street, stating therein prices respectively per square yard of brick gutters; per square yard of macadam pavement; per cubic yard for grading; per lineal foot for curbing and gutter; per lineal foot for curbing in place; and per lineal foot for re-setting in place; and so far as the same are applicable to said streets, under said specifications, profiles and plans.

The bids for the work and material on each of said streets will be canvassed separately and considered in the aggregate based on the estimated quantities named in the specifications and awarded as separate contracts on each of said streets. All bids and the accompanying contract and bond must be written on blanks prepared by the undersigned for the purpose, and prices should be stated in writing and in figures.

All bids should be marked on the envelope "Street Assessment Committee," with the name of the street marked thereon, on which such bid is made, and filed in the office of the Street Assessment Committee in the City Clerk's office in said city.

S. B. Blanks for proposals and blank contract and bonds for each street will be furnished on application to the city clerk.

Bids, when the lowest ones, will be decided by the Street Assessment committee.

Situation in Race War at El Dorado Is Becoming Serious.

Carbondale, Ill., Sept. 18.—The situation at El Dorado, where, since July a race war has been in progress between the colored citizens and a portion of the whites, has again reached a critical stage, so much so that company E of the Fourth Illinois National Guard, under command of Capt. Rooby of Mattoon, has gone to the village. This hurried action on the part of the state officials is supposed to have been taken fearing that the lawless element will attempt to burn the houses of those colored citizens that live in and near the village.

For some time it has been known that such action was being planned in order to drive out every colored citizen, and the plan was put into effect on the barn of John Bean.
